

Eden Hills Kindergarten

where everyone belongs

We acknowledge that we live, learn and play on unceded Kurna Yarta, which are the lands, skies and waterways of Kurna Miyurna, and a place of living, learning and playing since time immemorial.

“Our image of the child is rich in potential, strong, powerful competent and most of all connected to adults and other children.”

Loris Malaguzzi in Dahlberg, Moss and Pence 1999, p.48

Sustainability

At Eden Hills Kindergarten, we tread lightly on country through considered use of the resources and respectful interactions with our environments. The places where we live, play and learn are integral to all that we do.

Relationships

At Eden Hills Kindergarten, we value connection with family, community, culture and place. We support children and their families to feel secure, competent, respected and included.

Learning

At Eden Hills Kindergarten, learning is dynamic, complex and holistic. We respond to children's voice to create meaningful, engaging, play-based experiences. We acknowledge, support, and extend each child's understanding, capacity, and Executive Function skills.

Citizenship

At Eden Hills Kindergarten, we have rights and responsibilities. We are critically reflective and responsive to our beliefs, values, practices and actions. We are inclusive, diverse, and socially responsible.

Kurna Miyurna Ngadlu Kurna Yarta Tampinhi Ngaitalya

We acknowledge and respect the Kurna people and their land

Endorsed by educators and Governing Council: September 2023