

Assessment/Reporting

We report to parents through end of year Summative report and through the year via newsletters, informal conversations and Learning Journey folders.

The evolving program is on display in the foyer area. Educators encourage you to discuss the learning program with you and seek your input.