

Arrival and Collection of Children

In the interest of safety, we ask you that each child be brought right into the Preschool at the beginning of preschool and collected promptly at the end of preschool. All children must be collected by a known adult.