

Special Rights

The Department of Education and Child Development (DECD) provides support for children which includes Speech support, Hearing Impairment Services, Behaviour Management, Special Education, access to a psychologist and referral to other agencies.

If you feel your child needs access to any of these services please see the teacher or the school Principal.