

Kurna Plains Children's Centre Philosophy Statement:

We believe that the Kurna people hold rich history and knowledge.

We believe that play and playfulness are important to support the wellbeing of children and adults.

We believe that children play, learn and grow in the context of their family, community and culture.

We believe that everybody has a right to feel a sense of connection, belonging and safety.

Relationships are the key to growing and learning.