

CELEBRATIONS

Celebrations are an important part of the life of our children, families and community. They promote a sense of belonging and positive self esteem and can be celebrated in a variety of ways. Food is often a focus of cultural and family celebrations and has enormous learning potential. The centre embraces this but must always maintain a focus on the Nutrition Policy for health and safety reasons.