Quality Improvement Plan Summary

RISDON PARK SOUTH KINDERGARTEN

Goals	Challenge of Practice	Success Criteria
To extend children's ability to use number to describe and compare.	If educators use mathematical language alongside children, then we will extend children's ability to use number to describe and compare.	Through ongoing analysis of our documentation, we will see children: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- use language to compare quantities or collections eg. More/less/ same.</li> <li>- counting objects aloud with 1:1 correspondence, using fingers to count.</li> <li>- Noticing quantity as an attribute. Eg. there are 3 .</li> </ul>
To extend children's ability to express their ideas through mark making.	If educators embed formative assessment to intentionally plan mark making experiences, then we will extend children's ability to express their ideas through mark making.	Through ongoing analysis of children's oral language and mark making, we will see children <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- represent their ideas and theories in multiple ways.</li> <li>- confidently communicate the meaning of their mark making to others.</li> <li>- continue to add more details in their mark making, persisting with revisiting and adding more to their mark making overtime.</li> <li>- begin to write symbols and letter like formations.</li> </ul>
