

Transition to School

Children are generally involved in school visits in the last few weeks of term. Schools will notify you by letter when your child is due to start and the times they can attend. The routines for these can change depending on the classroom teacher at the time.