

Celebrations

While we appreciate children's birthdays are very special occasions, we ask , that if you do wish your child to share treats with the other children to celebrate please send or provide non-food treats such as pencils, erasers, stickers. Children receive a birthday certificate in recognition of their special event and we will sing Happy Birthday unless you request us not to.